This information leaflet is designed to help you with some of your immediate concerns and indicate what services and assistance may be available to you.

BENEFICIARY OF INTERNATIONAL PROTECTION

A beneficiary of International protection is a person granted refugee status or subsidiary protection status.

You will have access to a wide range of rights, which are defined by the Cyprus Refugee Law:

- ✓ the right to transfer assets into the Republic of Cyprus
- ✓ the right to fair treatment regardless of gender, race, and religion, membership in a particular social group, political opinion or country of nationality/origin
- ✓ the right to express and practice freely your religious beliefs
- ✓ the right to participate in social integration programs

You will enjoy the same rights as Cypriot nationals enjoy, such as:

- ✓ access to the general education system and further training or retraining programs
- ✓ the right to the recognition of foreign educational certificates, diplomas and degrees
- ✓ the right to have free access to the Courts of the Republic as well as to the exemption from the requirement to provide guarantee for the judicial expenses
- ✓ the right to food supply in cases of emergency
- ✓ the right to the protection of intellectual property rights
- ✓ the right to participate in adult educational programs that relate to issues of employment, professional training including training courses for upgrading skills, practical workplace experience and counselling services afforded by employment offices
- ✓ special support (social and medical) for vulnerable persons

RESIDENCE PERMIT

What should I do after receiving international protection?

You should apply for a residence permit.

If you are residing in Nicosia, you should contact the Civil Registry and Migration Department or if you are residing in another district you should contact Aliens and Immigration Unit of the Police of your district of residence.

For refugees a three-year residence permit is granted which is renewable.

For a beneficiary of subsidiary protection status, a residence permit for one year is granted, which is renewable for as long as this status is maintained.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Am I entitled to health care services? You are entitled to health care services under the same conditions that apply to Cypriots nationals. You must contact your District General Hospital or nearest health center for any further information.

Can my children go to school? All minors have full access to all levels of education under the same conditions as Cypriot nationals.

Can I travel? Am I allowed to obtain travel document? Beneficiaries of international protection are allowed to travel. In case you wish to travel, make sure whether visa is required to enter another country.

The legal ports of entry into and exit from the Republic of Cyprus are the airports of Larnaca and Pafos and the ports of Larnaca, Limassol, Latsi and Pafos, which are situated in the area under the effective control of the Government of the Republic of Cyprus. Entry into or exit from the territory of the Republic of Cyprus via any other port or airport in which the Government of the Republic does not exercise effective control is illegal.

A travel document (laissez passer) is granted to beneficiaries of subsidiary protection status who are unable to obtain a national passport, which enables them to travel outside the Republic of Cyprus. Refugees can obtain refugee travel documents (based on the Geneva Convention). This travel document is valid for all countries and is expiring with the end of the residence permit.

The responsible department for the issuing of passports and travel documents is the Civil Registry and Migration Department.

Can I travel to my country of origin? Traveling to your country of origin may trigger proceedings resulting in revoking your protection.

Can I bring my family to Cyprus? Recognised refugees enjoy the right to family reunification. Family members (refugee's wife/husband, unmarried minor children and in case of unaccompanied minor his/her first degree relatives) of a refugee who were not able to accompany him/her at the time of his/her entry to the Republic, can be reunited with him/her in the Republic as long as s/he requests it and the relationship between them is confirmed. The responsible department to examine family reunification requests is the Civil Registry and Migration Department.

Can I work? Where can I apply for work? You have the right to engage in employed or self-employed professional activities. You don't need any work permit. You must contact the Labour office if you would like to find a job.

Am I entitled to guaranteed minimum income benefit (EEE)? Any person whose income and other financial resources are insufficient to satisfy his or her basic and specific needs, as defined by law, may seek the provision of a guaranteed minimum income, which is provided in the form of financial support and/or services. How can I claim? You should contact with the Welfare Benefits Administrative Service
